

Paired or Partner Reading

Paired reading is a small group activity where two students take turns reading a text aloud to each other.

Students who are at different fluency levels can be paired together or students who are the same fluency level can be paired together.

Paired reading helps students learn to work together, encourages cooperation and allows students to practice reading fluently out loud.