Word Walls

A word wall is a collection of words displayed somewhere in the classroom where students can easily see.

Word walls can contain vocabulary from a specific unit, high frequency words or words that are new to the class.

Word walls can be used as a reference for students to use when writing. Word walls can also help students see patterns and relationships in words.

Word walls can be used individually, with small groups or with the entire class.